GW Student Employee of the Year Award

We invite you to nominate your student employee for the GW Student Employee of the Year Award. The GW Student Employee of the Year is entered into a regional competition of the National Student Employment Association.

Over the years student employees have made valuable contributions to the GW workforce. Often these employees manage full-time academic schedules and participate in campus activities in addition to working part-time. The commitment these students make in balancing the responsibilities of work and school deserves special acknowledgement.

This award recognizes student employees who have made outstanding contributions to their employers. If you have a student employee whom you feel is worthy of special recognition, we encourage you to nominate him/her/them.

The student you nominate should have worked for you for a period of at least six months, and be a full-time, undergraduate or graduate student at GW. Please note that the nominee will be evaluated on the qualities of reliability, quality of work, initiative, professionalism, and contribution to employer as indicated on the nomination form.

The nomination period for the Student Employee of the Year Award will end on Monday, February 5 at 9am due to deadlines associated with the regional and national Student Employee of the Year awards.

Nominations for all other awards in the Excellence in Student Life Awards Program will open in mid January and close at 9am on 2/28.
