Students' Choice for Performance Group of the Year

Students' Choice for Performance Group of the Year is an award to be presented to a registered student organization dedicated to the performing arts or to cultural awareness through performing arts. The purpose of the award is to recognize groups who demonstrate a strong commitment to promoting performing arts at the George Washington University by producing artistic, diverse, educational, and entertaining programming that enriches the GW community. The Excellence Awards Selection Committee will choose the top groups from the nominations submitted and those groups will be invited to perform during the Excellence Awards Ceremony on April 18, 2018 at 8pm in Lisner Auditorium and the audience will vote for their favorite performance. The performance group with the highest combined score from their nomination and audience votes will win this award.
